

Periodicals (Magazines/ Newspapers/ Journals) held in St. Michael's College Library

What's it called?	How often do we get it?	Where is it?	Anything else?
Books Ireland	Every month	At the desk.
Cycling Weekly	Every week	On the bookshelves near the computers.
The Economist	Every week	On the bookshelves near the computers.	This is a really interesting look at the business world and how it affects us.
Golf Monthly	Every month	On the bookshelves near the computers.
History BBC	Every month	On the bookshelves near the computers.	Could help with history class.
History Ireland	Every two months	On the bookshelves near the computers.	Could help with history class.
Inis- Children's Books Ireland	Every three months	At the desk.	Reviews and articles about books for children and young people.
IPA Yearbook- The Institute of Public Administration	Once a year	At the desk.	Has information on social, public and political organisations in Ireland.
Irish Times	Daily	On the desk.
National Geographic	Every month	On the bookshelves near the computers.	It has great photographs, as well as interesting articles on lots of different topics.
New Scientist	Every week	On the bookshelves near the computers.	This is really good for connecting science to real life. It's not just theoretical; it shows how science can and does affect our everyday lives.
Rugby World	Every month	On the bookshelves near the computers.	Stay up to date with your favourite teams and players with this periodical.
Spirituality	Every two months	On the bookshelves near the computers.
The Stinging Fly			This is a really interesting magazine that promotes and publishes the best of Irish and international writing in all forms.